August 16, 2017 -- Katooosh is 46!!

*It is hard to believe Katooosh is already leaving age 45
Quicker than Jeremy through a stop sign can drive*

And wow - what a year 45 has been While Katooosh was sleeping Trump got voted it

With a little help from Putin the Russian Twitting and cursing is now considered presidential fashion

*Poor Katooosh can only dream that one day a party will be in a power like English labor
But that has as much chance as Beverly getting flowers from her neighbor*

*But without too many rhyming dictionary clicks
Let's focus on the positive before Katooosh became 46*

*It was a year Katooosh broke many grounds
With the help of a nutritionist she even lost tons more pounds*

*And with a beautiful figure she became even more small
And started even enjoying (a little) shopping at the mall*

*To Venice she headed where she sailed in low tide
With some authentic long Island tour guide*

*And there was no reason to view the Colosseum on her Google Chrome
Because she actually saw it in Rome*

*Before Rome she went to Florence to see the Birth of Venus
And in the Academy she was impressed by David's ....*

*One day she turned on the shower and was found there was a leak
And this guy named Carmine came to take a peek*

katoosh_46

*With a new shower, bidet and even a Make Up station
Katoosh has the best shower in the nation*

*And while all this constructon took place at foundary she got an internship
My best commuting day was when we travelled together on the train trip*

*While all this was going on Ari became even much taller
And even became known as the Uni-baller*

*And she learned to not to to dwell
Whenver Beverly starts to yell*

*And finally she doesn't need to hear the Rabbi's big mouth
As he and Annet went far far south*

*I love Katoosh more than this poem can express
Even more than talking loves Steve Press*

*Lets hope that Katoosh 46 will be still the best year
And that to the best places our and her life will veer!*

I love you Katoosh!!!
