

You are no longer just Kate, Katie or Katoosh
On your 30th birthday you are also the mother to some ooooshh

After all those years, you finally reached the big 3-0
You still have all the charm and that beautiful glow!

Now, after awhile, again we in the same decade,
But you look better then before - even when naked

And now that you are in the same decade as me,
Will it be OK if I tell people "I am closing in on forty?"

So what does it mean when your first digit changes,
For you it will mean that are climbing different ranges

Because now that you have went 3 times through a -9-Maybe you'll celebrate with a glass of wine!

And in addition to that you are becoming a mommy
You are now also responsible for feeling his tummy

Who know where you'll go next now that you are thirty (Although it probably be San José, LA - but not cape verdi)

I love you Katoosh and as you reach this three-zero
I want you to know that you are still my hero!

But you didn't expect to get a paper pickle for your birthday!

Love,
Molly Tal

Say I am not surprised & love
it!
